1. Describe the physical structure of the stupa as outlined in the course notes.

Ans- Stupa is an oldest structures of stone of India and a major centre of Buddhist architectures. A massive hemispherical dome of 16.46 meters and 36.6 metres in diameter having relics of Buddha.

2. Explain the features of the Toranas.

Ans- The Toranas are the four beautifully carved gateways placed at the cardinal directions around the stupas. The main feature comprises four gateways, architectural design, intricate carvings and religious significance.

3.